第二节 书面表达(满分 25 分)

【参考范文】

Have a strong sense of responsibility

Responsibility is one of the most important virtues of a person.

My role model is Zhang Guimei, who founded a high school offering free education to girls in a less-developed area of Yunnan province. She took the responsibility for nearly 2,000 girls and helped them enroll in college, laying a solid foundation for rural development.

Her story has taught me to develop a strong sense of responsibility. In my view, as human beings, we should be responsible for ourselves, for each other, and for our natural environment. Therefore, we must take responsibility for our physical safety, emotional well-being and professional life. Besides, care for others around us, and protect the environment.

Responsibility makes a full man. Let's develop a strong sense of responsibility!

听力材料

Text 1

W: Hello, I can't take your call at the moment. Please leave a message.

M: Debbie, this is Peter. I'm sorry but I can't meet you in the library at 11:00. Shall we meet on the playground then?

Text 2

M: Sorry I'm late—have you been here long?

W: Only ten minutes. I left home at 6:05 and got here at 6:35.

M: Well, if we hurry, we'll make it for the concert at 7:00.

Text 3

W: What can I do for you, sir?

M: Well, my camera isn't working properly. Can you repair it?

W: I'm sorry, sir. We only sell photography equipment. However, there's a repair shop just down the street.

M: Well, all right.

Text 4

W: Jack, I was just looking at the schedule. These talks seem too close together. Push each talk back at least ten minutes.

M: I forgot there's supposed to be enough time for questions after each talk.

Text 5

M: What's the problem?

W: Could you tell me how I can copy this document into this disk? I've been trying on this computer for ages but I can't seem to do it.

Text 6

W: Have you seen this?

M: Yeah, but the money's not great and it doesn't say much about the working conditions.

W: That's true, but you've always wanted to work overseas. And, anyway, in a foreign country every day would feel like a holiday, wouldn't it? If I hadn't just got a new place, I'd consider it myself.

M: I'm not sure. I'm not in a great need to find a job at the moment. But I'd rather take my time and look for jobs closer to home.

Text 7

M: Ms. Maya, I'm here to pay next month's bill.

W: You can pay by check, you know.

M: I haven't opened a checking account yet. I usually pay in cash.

W: Oh, carrying so much cash isn't a good idea. You know it's not quite safe around here. You'd better open a checking account as soon as possible.

M: OK, thank you. I'll look into that. Where may I pay the electric bill? May I pay that here, too?

W: No. You may go to the Electric Company Office and pay it there, but that's not very convenient. Most people just send a check.

M: It seems that I'd better open up a checking account.

Text 8

M: Hi, Sally. Did you go to the party yesterday?

W: No. I sent my grandfather to see a doctor for his headache. What do you think of the party?

M: Uh, it was really a wonderful party. The organization work was excellent.

W: Really? Come on, David. Tell me more about it.

M: We had planned to hold the party from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. But everyone was so excited that it didn't finish until 11:30 p.m. The whole party was full of chatting, dancing and singing. It was filled with cheerful atmosphere.

W: It sounds so great!

M: Absolutely. All things were so wonderful especially the desserts and drinks which gave me the deepest impression. The hot chocolate was the most delicious drink I had ever tasted.

W: Oh, it's a pity that I missed it.

Text 9

M: How can I help you?

W: Well, I'd like to join this International Social Club. I was hoping you could help me.

M: No problem. How long have you been in Australia?

W: I arrived just last month. I'm from Tokyo—that's where I was brought up. I lived in America for a couple of years when I was a teenager — we went there for my father's job.

M: OK. You've got really nice American accent. So I don't suppose you have any communication problems in the office, though you may find some of our local Australian words harder to understand.

W: Well, a bit. Does the club hold regular meetings?

M: Yes, every Tuesday and Wednesday in fact, so a couple of times a month.

W: The members aren't just people from other countries, non-Australians, are they?

M: No, not at all. The main point of the club is to give people like you the chance to chat more with people from this country, people of all ages. You know, it's a sort of intercultural experience for everybody. And hopefully you'll make friends with people who have similar interests.

Text 10

W: Good morning, everybody. I'm Mary Stone. Today I'm going to share with you my hurricane experience.

Well, it was my first hurricane since my family moved here to North Carolina. Before it came, we had continual day warnings of it from the radio, the TV and the newspapers for a week. We had to get everything out of the yard. We didn't have a basement or a storeroom, so we put the yard furniture and waste containers into the garage. And we bought lots and lots of food and water. We even filled the bath with water. We also checked the flashlights and the small radio in case they couldn't work. The hurricane was terrible. The rain was so heavy that we couldn't see out the windows. The wind was about 80 miles an hour and it reached 100 miles an hour at times. It knocked down the power lines and we didn't have electricity for two days. We were lucky. Only one tree came down in the backyard. I was so scared! Most of the time, I stayed in the bathroom. But my husband was more relaxed. He lit candles and listened to the news on the radio.
