M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

M: On Tuesday afternoon, there's a lecture about study skills, but that morning offers another choice.

第二节

参考范文:

One day, I was watching the yellow warbler jumping among trees when a snake crawled towards it. I was so nervous at that time because I was afraid that the snake would eat it. I started waving and shouting at it, but it felt that I was greeting it and began to sing happily and freely. Watching the snake getting closer, I was so hopeless that I couldn't imagine what would happen next.

At this time, I saw many small stones in the backyard. I immediately walked towards the stones. Then, I started to attack the snake hurriedly. I picked up the stone and threw it at the snake in the tree. I was too nervous and never hit the snake. At this moment, I had an idea and immediately threw several stones at the branch where the yellow warbler was. The yellow warbler instantly flew away in panic. I continued to drive the snake away with the stones. After a while, the yellow warbler flew back, singing in the branches, as if to express its gratitude.
