第一节: 书面表达 (25 分) (One version)

Recently, our school has conducted a thorough-cleaning inspection, which reflects some problems worthy of attention.

First of all, some classrooms aren't carefully cleaned, with waste paper and plastic bags lying around. Besides, some dormitories are messy and untidy, with dust on doors and windows. Worse still, fast-food boxes and leftovers were found in washrooms.

Measures should be taken to change these phenomena. First, we should consciously maintain cleanliness, not destroying it. Second, every time we do cleaning, we should do it carefully and thoroughly to remove all the garbage. Last but not least, strengthen monitoring, expose and educate those who litter here and there, or even punish them if necessary.

Let's build a green and clean campus together!
