I'm very exciting that I won a competition at my school today! It's the first competition I've never won. The competition was calling Spelling Bee. The children in my class have to spell a lot of difficult words and our teacher wrote our names and how much words we could spell on a piece of paper. I spelled \wedge most words right, so I won!

The teacher said I could have a CD and a computer game, but I didn't know what one to choose. I didn't real care about the prize. I like the competition itself. Because of my good performance, my mother gave ~~to~~ me a dictionary as a Christmas present.

87—96:

excited	ever	called	had	many
the	or	which	really	to

VII. Writing (写作) (共 2 题; A 题满分 10 分, B 题满分 20 分, 计 30 分)

(A) One possible version:

Come and have a look at our Today's Special Offer. It's about the new dress which just arrived yesterday. It comes in three colors: blue, pink and brown. And we have three sizes for this dress—small, medium and large. If you buy one of these dresses, you'll get a twenty percent discount. And another special offer is you can get a silk scarf for free with every dress you buy! Don't miss this amazing deal!

(76 words)

(B) One possible version:

In recent years, modern technology has changed the way we communicate in writing. However, despite the increased use of computers for writing, the skill of handwriting remains important in education, employment and everyday life.

Firstly, it's worth mentioning that handwriting still plays an important role in our education system due to the fact that the majority of our examinations are still handwritten.

Secondly, writing with pen and paper helps you to focus on your work. Pen and paper can also allow you to think more freely when you do things such as brainstorming.

Finally, there's another, but no less important point that writing by hand is a unique and irreplaceable part of our culture.

(114 words)

2017 年全国中学生英语能力竞赛(NEPCS)决赛 高一年级组试题听力部分(录音原文)

I. Sentences

Please listen to the following five sentences. There are two missing words in each sentence. Fill in the blanks with the exact words you hear. Each sentence will be read twice.

1. I doubted whether he would arrive here on time.
2. He's hoping to compete in the Hangzhou International Marathon.
3. They suggested that we have dinner at the new restaurant.
4. We should try our best to protect children from danger.
5. The man over there is in charge of the old castle now.

II. Dialogues

(A) Please listen to the following five mini-dialogues. Each dialogue is followed by a question. Choose the best answer to each question according to what you hear. Each dialogue and question will be read twice.

6. W: Would you like to play tennis this afternoon?

M: I don't think we'll be able to. It's going to rain.

Q: What's the weather going to be like this afternoon?

7. W: Excuse me. Is there a train to Paris at four o'clock?

M: No, but there's one at a quarter to four, madam.

Q: Where's the woman going?

8. W: Are these white shoes on sale?

M: Yes. They were £25.60 last week. But they're £10 cheaper this week.

Q: How much are the shoes now?

9. W: Did you enjoy last night's movie?

M: Not really. The story line was very weak.

Q: Why didn't the man like the movie?

10. W: Hello.

M: Hello, Mary. This is Tom. Would you like to come to my birthday party?

W: I'd love to. Your birthday is on Thursday, isn't it?

M: Yes, it is. But I'm having the party on Friday at my house.

Q: When's the man's birthday party?

(B) Please listen to the following longer dialogue. It is followed by five questions. Choose the best answer to each question according to what you hear. The dialogue and questions will be read twice.

M: Good evening, Doctor.

W: Good evening, William. What can I do for you?

M: I'd like some advice from you, Doctor.

W: Well, tell me, what's the problem?

M: I'm slightly overweight and I feel unhappy about it. Could you tell me how I can get fit and healthy?

W: OK. But I need to ask you some questions first. What do you usually like to eat?

M: Hamburgers, French fries and fried chicken.

W: How often do you do exercise?

M: Never. I usually stay at home and play computer games.

W: Well, you have to change your lifestyle to lose weight and be healthy. First, you must have better eating habits. Eat lots of vegetables and fruit, eat less red meat and fast food, and drink lots of water.

M: I see. Anything else, Doctor?

W: Yes. You must do some exercise for half an hour every day. Don't sit in front of your computer and play games for hours. If you follow all my advice, you'll soon reduce your weight and be healthier.

M: Thank you, Doctor. I'll follow your advice and I'll come back to see you in a few weeks.

W: OK. Come to see me next month. I'm sure you'll have lost some weight and be feeling much healthier.

Questions:

11. Why does the man go to see the doctor?
12. Which kind of food does the man like to eat?
13. What does the man usually do at home?
14. How long does the doctor suggest the man exercise every day?
15. When will the man come back to see the doctor again?

III. Passages

(A) Please listen to the following passage. It is followed by five questions. Choose the best answer to each question according to what you hear. The passage and questions will be read twice.

W: Today is the 14th of November and it's my birthday. I got this diary as a present from my mom, and this is my first piece of writing in it.

First of all, I'll write down who I am. My name's Cindy Carter and I'm sixteen years old. I study at Kennedy High School. My best friend at school is Anna. She's the same age as me. She's really good at drawing and playing music. However, I'm terrible at drawing.

My favorite subject is history. And we have a great history teacher at school. Mr Nelson makes all the classes very interesting.

Some of my other birthday presents were a new book, two T-shirts, a pair of shoes and some money from Grandma. I don't know what I'm going to spend the money on yet.

Well, that's about enough for my first ever diary day. I suppose that when I'm old and gray I'll read this book and try to remember it all.

Questions:

16. When is the girl's birthday?
17. What is the girl doing for the first time?
18. How old is Anna?

19. What does the girl think of Mr Nelson?

20. Who gave money to the girl as a present?

(B) Please listen to the following passage and fill in the blanks according to what you hear, using with only one word for each blank. The passage will be read twice.

M: Welcome, everybody! I hope you're having a good time here in the West of England. I'm Mike and I'm your guide today. Our bus tour will last about one hour.

The bus is now turning into Queens Road. On this road, we can see a very modern building. It's the town's new stadium. All the big matches happen here.

Now, please look to your left. We're now passing the City Theater. This building is one hundred years old. It's very pretty, as you see, but it doesn't have enough seats for big shows. We've got a new entertainment center in Victoria Park. We don't pass it on the bus, but you may be interested to know it's got a cinema and a concert hall.

Now, on your right is High Street. This takes you to Market Place. This bus normally goes along High Street into Market Place. But at the moment some musicians are practicing for an outdoor concert there. So we're driving along a different road.
