W: Hi, Mr Brown. How's your apartment working out for you?

M: Well, that's what I would like to talk to you about. I want to talk to you about that noise!

Text 2

M: Hey! What's the rush?

W: The bank closes in half an hour and I need to cash a check.

M: Hmm. Can I help in any way?

W: You can drive me to the bank. My car is out of gas.

M: Yeah. Glad to.

Text 3

W: I like the design of the coat.

M: But I like its color.

W: Anyway, it's my idea. I'll take it.

M: I'll take one, too.

Text 4

W: I enjoy watching Channel 5. It always has films from all over the world.

M: How about the languages?

W: I can read the translations.

M: That's more convenient.

Text 5

M: There's a good chance that Mary will get home today.

W: I had a letter from her friend Susan yesterday, and she said that Mary would probably arrive today.

M: Well, I hope she drives carefully. You know how the traffic is at this time of year.

W: Oh, Mary is a good driver and pretty careful, too.

Text 6

W: You look rather tired. Aren't you feeling well?

M: Not really. I was sick most of the night. I didn't sleep very well.

W: What seems to be the matter? Is it the flu?

M: No, I think it's something I ate. We ate at that new restaurant last night, and I must have eaten something that didn't agree with me.

W: Was it that new restaurant on Fourth Street?

M: As a matter of fact, it was. Why do you ask?

W: Because Jerry ate there last week and had the same kind of problem. He was sick the next day, too.

M: That's interesting. Maybe the health officials should look into the place.

Text 7

M: Hello, Sara, are you finished packing yet? Do you need a hand?

W: Thanks, Dad. I can manage it myself.

M: Make sure you have your ID card. You will need it while you travel.

W: Yes, I know. The problem is that I can't find it. Where did you put it?

M: All your important documents and your certificates should be in the desk drawer.

W: Oh, yes, here they are.

M: Did you buy a map? Traveling can be really inconvenient without one.

W: No, Dad. We have a tour guide.

M: Also, carry these pills in case you have any airsickness, and carry some cold medicine, too.

W: No, I won't get sick. I promise.

Text 8

W: Good morning. Welcome to The Big Sleep Inn.

M: Hello. We'd like to check in. We made a reservation last week.

W: Sure, under what name?

M: Maloney, Marvin Maloney.

W: Just a moment, please. Ah, Mr Maloney, you've reserved a single room for two nights.

M: No, that can't be right. I reserved a double room.

W: Ah, let me just see. ~~Oh~~ you're right. a double room. Could you please fill out this registration form?

M: Sure, no problem.

W: Okay, here's your key. ~~You're in room 412. It's on the~~ fourth floor and the lifts are just on the right, next to the reception area. I'm afraid the hotel maid is still cleaning. ~~It'll take about~~ 20 minutes. But if you like, you can leave your suitcases here and have a coffee in the hotel bar.

M: Thank you. That would be great.

W: No problem. See you later.

Text 9

M: Hi, darling! I have a one-month vacation saved up. How about a trip to Europe?

W: I could go for that. But I'm afraid our budget is a little tight this year.

M: Oh, but I really need to leave this town for a change. Working day after day has worn me out. Do you have any other suggestions?

W: How about the countryside? There must be many interesting places, and we could enjoy the fresh air and delicious local special foods.

M: Wonderful! I think that's a great idea. How soon can we make this happen? I can't wait!

W: Tomorrow I have an appointment with my doctor. What about next Monday?

M: Perfect. I'll start preparing for it tomorrow. If we're going to drive, I'll need to fill up the tank.

W: I'd rather travel by bus or train. It would cost much less than driving. Oil prices are rising nowadays, you know.

M: We can take the train, and that will be faster.

check-up by a doctor. Rather than have a shower, she faced many reporters in a press conference, in which she briefly explained the past 16 months.

She told the journalists that time had flown by. She said she was surprised when scientists came to tell her the 500 days had ended. She had had no contact with anyone else. She lost track of time and all sense of time. She said, "The most important thing is being very consistent. I lived up to my commitment to living in a cave for 500 days." She put her success down to being able to get on very well with herself. She did admit to having occasional desire for roast chicken.

写作第一节(满分 15 分)

One possible version:

Dear Jack,

I am sorry to inform you that the local folklore exhibition at Renmin Square, which I promised you to visit together, has been canceled due to the extremely bad weather these days.

But that doesn't mean we can do nothing about it. Since you are interested in learning about our local culture, I suggest we visit the Folklore Museum in our city instead. The museum has a large number of objects on display, which reflect the traditions observed in our city today and how they are evolving with contemporary society. I am sure you'll be interested in it.

Looking forward to your early reply.

Yours truly,

Li Hua
