Dear Mr Brown,

We're going to hold a birthday party for the students who were born in January, and I'm writing to invite you over to share the happy moment.

The celebration will be held in our classroom on January 17th, right after the final-exam week. All the students in our class will be present. A big birthday cake has been ordered for the occasion; snacks and soft drinks will be served. And, we'll have great fun playing some games.

Could you inform us whether you will be able to come, please? I'm sure all of us will be delighted by your presence.

Yours,
Li Hua

Text 1

W: Excuse me, Sir, could you tell me how to get to the Times Tower?

M: Well, you can take the Number 21 bus or a taxi. But it might be quicker to walk due to the heavy traffic this time of day.

W: OK. I will walk there. Thank you.

Text 2

M: A new Chinese film is on. Shall we go to see it this evening?

W: Sorry, but I have to eat dinner with my family.

M: We can watch the late show, which starts at 9:00 or 9:30.

W: OK. Let's meet around 8:30 at the theater.

Text 3

W: Good news! Our basketball team won the game!

M: Really? But as I know, they've always been defeated in recent years.

W: Yesterday, they played really hard. You should have been there.

Text 4

W: May I help you?

M: Yes, my friend will hold a birthday party this weekend. And I want to prepare a present for him.

W: What about this one? It is the latest smart watch and it can tell you time, weather, location, schedule and physical test with high technology.

M: Great. I'll take it. Thank you.

Text 5

M: Hi, Alice. I went to the new sports center yesterday. It was really great.

W: Yes, it covers two big basketball courts, three tennis courts and one soccer field. How amazing it is!

M: Super. The sports center is equipped with modern technology, so people far away can watch live matches on TV or online. Would you like to play tennis with me tomorrow?

W: Yes, but I'm not sure if I can afford the fee.

M: Don't worry. It is free during the first two weeks.

W: Fantastic. Let's go together.

Text 6

W: Good morning, young man. What's your trouble?

M: Morning, Doctor. I always have a stomachache and I've lost my appetite for about ten days. Do I need to stay in hospital?

W: Take it easy. Let me have a look. How would you describe the pains? Are they sharp or dull?

M: I think dull. Is it serious?

W: Hmm, you do look pale. Let me see if you have a fever and measure your blood pressure. Do you feel weak?

M: Yes, I always feel tired.

W: Well, nothing serious. Please unbutton your shirt and I will listen to your heartbeat.

M: Yeah.

W: (pause) I think it's anxiety that is causing it. Just take it easy and have a rest. You will feel better again.

M: Thanks a lot.

Text 7

W: Hi, Tony. I'd like to ask you about college life so I can prepare in senior high.

M: Sure. What do you want to know?

W: Well, what are the typical differences between college and high school?

M: There are so many. But the biggest and also scariest is that you are in the driver's seat. You are in complete control of your time and study habits. Of course, this can be fun. You will say hello to choice and independence and say goodbye to fixed schedules and required classes.

W: Sounds nice!

M: But be careful! There will be no one to remind you of deadlines, or to push you harder. So you need to organize your time well and perform enough self-control.

W: Got it. Any specific suggestions?

M: You can learn to create a weekly calendar with due dates and events, and make sure to review and update it often.

W: I can do that! Thank you!

Text 8

My family consists of my dad, mum, one brother, one sister and myself. My mom is a teacher and my dad is a doctor. We all live in a big house in the city. My dad is 50 years old and my mum is 46 years old.

My brother Daniel is a university student and he is 20 years old. Similarly, my sister is a student at high school and she is 16 years old. I have one aunt and one uncle. I have two nephews and one cousin.

Finally, I am 19 years old and I am at college studying to be a mechanical engineer. We like to go out to the beach at the weekends. We also like camping during summer holidays.

Welcome to this online course. My name is Sam Smith, and I will be your instructor.

I am looking forward to the opportunity we will grow together. The course starts on August 15th and lasts through November 15th. You can access the course by visiting the online homepage and logging in with your college identity.

An online class requires just as much work and effort as a traditional class. The amount of time you are expected to spend in any given week will be various but it will be probably average around 15 hours per week. This is a fully online course so there will be no required campus visits. If you live near campus, we can schedule an appointment. Virtual office hours will be available as well.

To ensure your success, you can visit the Student Services page to connect to guidance services. General questions should be posted on the Questions Forum. As for personal questions, email is the best way.

We'll spend the term working together. Here we go!
